

Python Append Question

1. Daily Expense Tracker

Create an empty list called expenses.

Ask the user to enter daily expenses for 7 days and store each amount using append (). Finally, print the complete expense list.

2. Employee Attendance System

You are given an empty list present_employees.

Take employee IDs from the user until they type "done" and add each ID to the list using append ().

3. Shopping Cart Application Create a shopping cart list.

Allow the user to continuously add product names using append () until they enter "checkout".

4. Cricket Score Recorder

Store runs scored in each over in a list using append (). Take input for 20 overs and display the final score list.

5. Temperature Monitoring System

A factory records machine room temperature every hour.

Store hourly temperatures in a list using append () and display temperatures above 40°C.

6. Student Marks Collection

Create a program that stores marks of 10 students in a list using append (). After storing, print the highest and lowest marks.

7. Hospital Patient Queue

Create an empty patient queue list.

Add patient names using append () as they arrive at reception. Print the final queue.

8. Website Login History

Store usernames of users who logged into a system today using append (). Stop taking input when the user enters "exit".

9. Production Line Defect Tracking

A manufacturing unit records defective item IDs during inspection.
Store all defective IDs in a list using append () and count total defective items.

10. Movie Ticket Booking System

Create a list called booked_seats.

Take seat numbers from users and store booked seats using append (). Prevent the program from stopping until the user types "stop".

